APPEAL FILED WITH THE INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
BY DONNA CAMERON, CARD NUMBER D770251,
A MEMBER OF LOCAL UNION 120, IBEW

Sister Donna Cameron is appealing her charges against John Gibson, Business Manager of IBEW Local Union 120, London, Ontario Canada. On July 22, 2009, based on a full and fair hearing of the charges, International Vice President Phil Flemming ruled that in accordance with the IBEW Constitution, the Business Manager has the authority to select who is hired at Local Union 120. IVP Flemming advised Sister Cameron that he did not have the jurisdiction to make a determination as to whether a violation of the human rights Act or Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms had occurred. On June 15, 2012, International President Ed Hill, ruled that as Sister Cameron is the charging party she does not have the right to appeal. By letter dated July 3, 2012, Sister Donna Cameron is appealing the decision of IP Ed Hill and requests the IEC uphold the Constitution of the IBEW, The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms as well as Statutory Law. After a thorough review of the facts presented in this case, the members of the executive council find that according to the IBEW Constitution Article XXV, Section 9, the appealing party has no standing for appeal. Therefore, the IEC upholds the decision of International President Hill and the appeal is denied.
